LET'S GET STARTED ON TOMORROW TODAY.

When you're just getting your life going, there are lots of tough decisions to make.

Many of them involve the question of money. Money for education. For a home. For saving. For living.

We have the answers at Valley National Bank. Not just because we're bankers. But because we're people, too.

Our many services include free checking, sixteen different ways to save, installment loans, and friendly smiles.

There's no better time than today to get a good financial start. But come to see us before you do. We're here to help tomorrow come easier.

Advisor: Betty Funkhouser Favorite Season: Summer

The Rustling of Grass I cannot tell why, But the rustling of grass, As the summer winds pass Through the field where I lie, Bring to life a lost day, Long ago, far away, When in childhood I lay Looking up at the sky And the white clouds that pass, Trailing isles of grey shadow Across the gold grass . . . O, the dreams that drift by With the slow flowing years, Hopes, Memories, tears In the rustling grass.

Most of the work on the yearbook is done during the winter months. Because we seem to neglect summer in a yearbook, this poem is dedicated to all the lovers of summer.

Business Staff: Monica Mason, Tony Mongold, Julie Biller, Donna Kline, Pam Shifflett, Gina Lindamood, Valerie Carr, Tammy Wager, Melody Keplinger, Roxanne Butler, Angie Taylor, Kim Sager, Linda Reedy, Anita Holley, Sherry Mongold, Nancy Dellinger, Shirley Brown, and Cathy Lutz. The business staff is responsible for selling all the ads that help to keep the cost of the book to the students at a minimum. Many members of the business staff contributed their time to helping with other portions of the book, especially the class sections. May their favorite seasons reward them for all of their work towards making Memories 1982 a success.
